Out of the Saltshaker...

“You shall see greater things than that ... you shall see heaven open” ...
(John 1:50 - 51)

Your desire for more of God than you have right now ... is the truest thing about you . (Ruth Haley Barton, Sacred Rhythms: Arranging Our Lives for Spiritual Transformation)

In the 1990's Holiday Inn ran a series of very funny tv ads which always ended with the catchy phrase: “Holiday Inn gives you more, and more is better.” We certainly know that more isn't always better (think drought, tornadoes, stress, etc.), but we also know that more of what we need the most is always better. And when what we need the most and what we want the most intersect and there is an abundance, then there is nothing better than that.

This is exactly what the death and resurrection of Jesus has done. When Jesus died on the cross the curtain which closed off the Holy of Holies from the rest of the temple was torn from top to bottom, symbolizing the removal of the barrier between God and people - - between heaven and earth. There is now nothing separating the followers of Jesus from the resources of heaven. Through the ministry of the Holy Spirit there is more of every good thing accessible to God's people, and more is better.

Ephesians 4:16-20 says, I pray that out of God's glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit... And I pray that you ... may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. The fullness of God is the intersection where our deepest needs and our deepest desires meet. We've all been created in God's image and we've all been hard-wired to want more of God. These are the most fundamental facts of human existence. The fundamental fact of Jesus' death and resurrection is that the floodgates of heaven have been opened and the Spirit is pouring out more and more of God's glorious riches.

The glory of Easter is that our sins have been paid for and our hearts are now free to receive more of what we long for the most - God himself. Christ has died, Christ has risen and Christ has given us immeasurably more that all we ask or imagine (Ephesians 4:20) -- all we need, and more. And more is better.

Shalom!

Session Highlights

At the Feb. 16th Session meeting, elders:

*met with Joe Barker, owner of Paulding's new local radio station, wMYw, 102.7. Joe shared his passion for lifting up the positives of Paulding County, and is working on Sunday morning programming that will include separate hours of traditional hymns, Bible study, sermons, and contemporary worship music. Joe requested that our church provide a series of sermons for Sunday morning programming. Later in the meeting, Session approved airing taped (not live-broadcast) sermons during March and April on 102.7. Pastor Dave will work with Mr. Barker to coordinate.

*learned that the organ repair contract with Lima Pipe Organ Co has been signed. This is the mid-level repair, between the 'bandaid' and the 'full repair'. Donations have exceeded the $62,200.00 contract amount. Sue C is coordinating the timing with them. *approved renewing the agreement with the local Red Cross to serve as an emergency shelter, after consulting with our insurance agent, Dan Straley.

*approved the membership transfer of Russ and Mary Herman to Antwerp Presbyterian Church *heard that the van transmission repair has been completed, the towing bills paid, and that the whole project was well under the budgeted $2500.

*adjusted membership class dates to Sat., March 19 for youth, and Sat., April 2 for adults. Anyone who considers Paulding Presbyterian to be 'their church' who is not a member is warmly encouraged to attend one of these classes. *heard that a generous donation has been made toward replacing the cottage garage with a 3-car garage with a storage mezzanine. The property committee is exploring plans, zoning and other considerations to be able to move forward.

*were reminded that a meal fund has been created. When a person or family volunteers to provide a '1st Wednesday' meal (not the Lenten meals) for the community, they may request reimbursement from this fund. Also, any donations made toward meals, or at the meal itself, would be held in this fund. It was created from the remaining carryover dollars as we moved from the 2014 to the 2015 budget year.

*learned that the EPC General Assembly meeting will be close to home this year, June 22-25 in Livonia, MI.

approved the following calendar items:

1. Thurs.-Fri., April 21-22, Hands of Hope training event in the Fellowship Hall, no charge. Their speaker will be a guest at the cottage, with Patty Meriwether as the church sponsor (makes sure all is ready before the visit, and that all is returned to readiness after the visit)
2. Sun., April 24 celebration to honor and thank Sue Crossland
3. Sat., May 7 Bridal shower for Rhonda Smalley's niece, Alyshia, in the Fellowship Hall, rental
4. Sat., June 4 Kacie Karlstadt graduation party, no charge
5. Sun., June 12 Pastor Dave marks 25 years serving our church

We invite you to offset this cost by funding a plant in honor or in memory of a loved one, or simply in praise of the resurrection, giving glory to God.

Prayer for Lent

"Oh, God, show me more of Your holiness.
Show me more of my sinfulness.
Help me to hate sin and to love righteousness as You do.
Grant me a deeper conviction of sin and a more thorough spirit of repentance.
And make me holy as You are holy."

Organ Repair

Session has approved going ahead with the repair on our organ. The original estimate a few years ago was just over $58,000. We currently have over $62,000.00 in the Organ Repair fund.

Keep your eyes and ears open!

We’re Gonna Have a Party!

In April, Sue Crossland celebrates her 50th anniversary of playing the organ at this church.

We will be celebrating with her on Sunday April 24 during the worship service and at a lunch following. Watch for more detail.

New Sign!

Our new sign has the capability of having the message changed. We can use it to promote 5th Quarter parties, Wednesday evening meals, the women’s retreat or anything else that we would like to promote. Thanks to Brune Printing for doing the work and Barb Searing for making the idea a reality.

Bidding freedom

Rhonda Pees, District 1

I was not looking forward to this.

Our district is currently engaged in a project to install exterior signs on our facilities to finally, and professionally, communicate the location of District 1 to those we serve. But this meant facing the process of seeking at least three quotes from companies chosen at random, then going with the lowest bidder. Having experienced the ODOT quoting process before, it all seemed so inefficient and limited.

But then, I had forgotten about the eQuote system and one of its key figures, District 1 Auditor Carol Razo. Introduced in September of last year, eQuote is a digital application that offers an easy way to solicit and collect project bids. Each vendor registers under a commodity code representing the type of services that vendor provides. When a project is entered into the system, the applicable commodity code is attached to it, and the system automatically sends notifications to all appropriate vendors. Those interested then submit their best bids for consideration and possible award.

The statewide system was established just in time for our sign project; eQuote yielded bids from nine companies, including firms we hadn't known existed before. We could now choose the lowest and best quote from a more inclusive list of vendors.

This was all the awesome idea of Razo and some of her classmates participating in the Ohio Certified Public Manager (OCPM) program. Their class required the completion of a group project, and Razo knew the department was searching for a new way to obtain quotes. The new system was the result, and today she helps walk people through this brave new world of efficiency and broader choices.

"The new eQuote system is beneficial in many ways," said Razo. "It gives more vendors the opportunity to know there's something out there to bid on. By doing this, it increases competition, avoids targeting the same vendors for every project, reduces the potential for receiving quotes from fictitious vendors, guarantees that everyone receives the same information and it ultimately ensures that ODOT is paying the lowest price."

TRANSCRIPT, FEBRUARY 2016 • 7

Pastor Dave and family gone the week of 2/29 to 3/7

A visit to New Jersey

Sue Paulus spent a few days in Pitman with her granddaughter and great granddaughter, where she was then joined by her daughter and grandson. Pictured above are Adam Leever, Quinn Morrison, Pam Leever and Danielle Morrison. While there she had lunch and a great visit with Bruce and Mary Becker.

Pictured on the right is little Quinn on one of her first walks outside this winter. She continually fell down the "big" slope.

While Dave and Patty are out of town for a family wedding, we will be having some guests fill in for him: On Wednesday evening, March 2nd, Mike Pennington will be speaking. On Sunday March 6, Pastor Dwayne Richardson from the House of Love will be filling the pulpit. All are invited to be here for both worship services.

Lenten Lunch, February 10 Ash Wednesday

Two of our teens have a leadership project going on at this time:

Kacie Karlstadt, along with partners Taylor Schooley and Emilee

Ringler, are working on their senior project.

They are collecting items for San Salvador Hurricane Relief. Items that they feel they can ship easily are:

Bath Towels, Kitchen Towels, Work Socks: for under work boots

The decision made to collect these three items came after Kacie talked with her cousin, Tiffany Razo, about what is still needed there following Hurricane Joaquin in October 2015. Tiffany has been in San Salvador assisting the residents there most of November and December, and is there again as this is written.

Erin Karlstadt, along with Allison Rieneck of the Nazarene Church, is working on her freshman project, a Hands of Hope diaper fund raiser.

The collection for the Hands of Hope Diaper Drive ends on Sunday the 28th.

Cooking the Spaghetti Sauce

Warm Hearts/Warm Homes

Help our less fortunate Paulding neighbors afford their utilities this winter.

This is the last time this winter that you will read about Warm Hearts/Warm Homes as the program is officially over for this year the last of February.

Checks should be made out to the church, please put Warm Hearts /Warm Homes in the memo line. 100% of these funds will be used in Paulding County.

This has been a project of Women's Fellowship since 2005.

More “Thank You” Notes

Again this month we received several thank you notes from groups and individuals receiving our mission donation:

God’s Share Program: Thank you so much for your financial gift! What a blessing. We are currently sending school supplies (to include food containers, socks and underwear) by boat to the Philippines. Even in 3rd world countries children are shamed by teachers if they don’t have underwear! So many children need to experience Jesus’ love and provision through receipt of school supplies. We’re also gathering school supplies to go by boat to Zambia. Some of these supplies will be distributed to children attending school at a prison—cause if Mom’s in prison sometimes the children live there as well.

The missionary gets to hand out school supplies and teach the children about Jesus! We’re also working on helping supply seeds and Perilte for gardening in the Philippines to feed thousands in poverty. We’re also currently sending clothing and supplies for refugees in several countries.

As we’re busy being about the Father’s business we are excited about you partnering with us.

Kim C. Wilson, God’s Share Program

Ron and Donna Schumacher: sent an e-mail stating that they are thrilled with the extra financial support we have sent for them within the past 12 months.

Caring and Sharing Food Pantry: sent a note stating that we are a huge help with feeding and caring for those in need in the Paulding Community.

House of Love Ministries: Pastor Dwayne actually walked across the street to say a huge “Thank you” for the financial support sent to them. We was very excited and encouraged by this church’s financial and emotional support.

Youth For Christ and the Christian Campus Coalition sent thank you’s with their receipts. This congregation is a giving and loving group of Christ Followers.

Our Beautiful Babies

Miriam Teura Brown was born February 22, weighing in at 8 lb. 1 oz. and 18 1/2 inches long. She is the daughter of Allie and Matt Brown, the granddaughter of Dave and Patty Meriwether. Miriam also has a big sister, Lucy shown holding her in the bottom photo.
